

South Dakota: Step Four: Prepare For The Summative Conference

Evaluator: Teacher08 Blue
Practitioner: Teacher08 Blue

This section documents the preliminary student growth rating, which will be discussed during the end-of-year Summative Conference.

High Growth: The growth goal was 86% to 100% attained.

What does high growth mean? Detail end-of-course achievement levels that equate to high growth. (4b)

Expected Growth: The growth goal was 65% to 85% attained.

What does expected growth mean? Detail end-of-course achievement levels that equate to expected growth. (4b)

Low Growth: The growth goal was less than 65% attained

What does low growth mean? Detail end-of-course achievement levels that equate to low growth. (4b)

Preliminary Student Growth Rating

Based on final assessment data, the student growth rating is:

Low

Expected

High

Professional Growth: Detail what you learned.

What worked? What should be refined? Describe the support you need to improve instruction and student learning. (1a, 4a)